Student Council

Representatives from each organization in Le Mars High School compose the Student Council, which is the student legislative body. This group meets regularly at a luncheon once every six weeks to plan school activities. Special meetings are called from time to time as it is deemed necessary.

Homecoming was the most important event sponsored by the group during the fall season. The organization of the pep meeting, parade, and alumni dance was under the direction of special committees of the Student Council.

An outstanding forum in February was evidence of the work of the Council. Five local people discussed the topic, "International Understanding." Speeches were given by five others on such far away places as China, Thailand, Hawaii, Palestine, and Europe. A panel discussion of "Youth in the Postwar World" was participated in by a mother, a high school student, a college student, and a business man. Dr. Beryl D. Orris, noted psychiatrist and lecturer on youth problems, climaxed the forum with a lively and interesting speech on character.

The social functions of the school are planned by the Council. Maintenance of the service flag is a special project. This year a new Golden Horseshoe was purchased as a trophy for the Cherokee-Le Mars football games. Christmas decorations and assembly programs this year were arranged by the Student Council.

Advisors of the organization are Superintendent Kluckhohn and Principal Adams. Officers this year have been as follows: Clyde Johnson, president; Don De Jager, vice-president, and Joyce Cooper, secretary-treasurer.

Membership in the National Honor Society is awarded on the basis of attainments in scholarship, leadership, character and service and is limited to fifteen per cent of the senior class in any given year. In order to qualify in scholarship a student must rank in the upper one-third of his class. He is rated in qualities of leadership and character by members of the faculty, and is awarded service points for active participation in school activities.

The Le Mars chapter of the National Honor Society was founded in 1927.

Home Coming

The most important event of the year is the Le Mar High School Homecoming. The school festival is held at the Le Mar High School. It opens with a pep rally in the high school gymnasium. It is followed by the high school band playing a variety of music. There are also a variety of games and activities. The Le Mar High School Homecoming is a very popular event. It is held every year and is a great way for the school to celebrate its achievements.

Immediately following the ceremony, the homecoming parade is held. It starts from the various organizations and headed by the band and the queen. It then proceeds to the gymnasium where a group of judges award the various entries. Awarding first prize to the sweetest couple, a large sweetheart dough and besting the queen and her attendant. The Gamma Alpha Chapter of the Cherokee Brave received second prize and the Future Farmers of America received third prize for their entry.

In the homecoming game played on the Western Union Campus that evening the Le Mar Bulldogs won a decisive 42-6 victory over the Cherokee Braves.

Climaxing the homecoming observance and honoring the alumni and returning servicemen the talent of Le Mar High School were held on the following Monday night at the annual homecoming dance the theme being "A Sweetheart's Ball".

Junior Play

"Ask Me Another," a comedy in three acts by Glenn Hughes, was a smash hit when the Junior Class presented it to a large audience on October 19.

The plot centered about a feature column written by a clairvoyant mystic named Marco who in reality was the beautiful newspaper-woman, Joyce Martin. What with stolen jewels, rival reporters, burglars, and detectives, plenty of excitement and comedy were revealed before the dramatic coach.

Future Farmers of America

The F. L. R. Farmer of Amarillo is FFA's first minority grower. The national organization has not yet adopted the FFA motto, "Learning to do, doing to learn," which is the motto of the United States. So far, it was the founding of the first FFA chapter by minority students and the formation of the first FFA chapter, which have taken place since the FFA's founding. A new affiliation with the national organization. There are today more than 100 FFA chapters in 10 cultural centers.

Outstanding performances characterized the 1943 season for Coach Carey's Bulldogs, captained by 'Ripper' Collins, L. H. S. senior. Starting as a green team, the Careymen looked like veteran performers before the season was half over. Chalking up seven wins and two losses, the squad attained top honors in the Tri State Conference for the fourth consecutive season.

Highlight of the season was the homecoming game in which the Bulldogs rolled over their old rival Cherokee, by a score of 42-6 in the finest game of the season.

The Red and Backs suffered only two defeats during the season. These were their first and third games, when they lost to Estherville in a 14-7 score, and dropped an ugly battle to Ida Grove in a 20-0 decision.

In the second game of the season, with South Sioux City, the Bulldogs forced a score of 14-6 over the traditional conference rivals. The less experienced Elk Point team was handed a decisive defeat of 31-0. Succeeding games saw Rock Rapids defeated 13-12, Leeds 13-7, Vermillion 12-6. In the Armistice Day clash, Hawarden was scuttled 33-6.

Following is the season's schedule

Basketball

Sharp shooting, smooth passing, and excellent teamwork proved to be the spark for one of the finest basketball teams in the history of Le Mars High School. Chalking up an average of thirty-five points a game, the Bulldogs rode roughshod over twelve of their fifteen opponents. Nine of their games were with Conference opponents with the Bulldogs winning eight of those tilts to make them champions for the second time in the five-year history of the Conference. The Conference record was marred only by a 26-25 defeat at the hands of a strong Vermillion quintet which was later defeated by the locals in a 37-29 decision.

In the sectional tournament held at Orange City, the Bulldogs won an easy victory over St. Mary's High School of Remsen to enter the finals where they were opposed by the strong Northwest Iowa Champs of Sioux Center. The resulting 50-23 score marked the finals for this year's cage season.

Receiving letters this year were Collins, Starzl, D. Johnson, De Jager, C. Johnson, Wilhelmi, Carey, Taylor, Hemphill, Wash and Haas.

Following is the season's record:

G. A. A.

Initiation of new members started the year's activities with a bang. Soccer, volleyball, basketball and softball followed in a series of games. The girls were also active in the school's literary and musical societies. The year was a busy one for the girls, and intramural tournaments were held in February.

A special society was formed for the tuition pupils this year. The two groups met frequently in competitive sports.

What's in a Name

While ROLLING down a dimly lighted street, I happened to glance into a restaurant and saw Looking toward another table, I saw ADOREE STEELE the WICK out of a candle.

Don't do that. It will be too dark!" someone said.

CAREY that heavy load to the TAYLOR shop next door

Leaving the restaurant, I noticed a BROWN haze had crept over the city and the wind was celeBRAYtion

Did you bring the HAMMER?" KENNEY build it?" "How much MOORE will we need?" Is it too KLOHS to the wall?" Everyone was shouting questions at once

I have to PHILIP my car with so much gas? I wish I were REICH

As I pondered sadly, there was ROLLAND LUKEN at me.

You needn't worry," he said. "WENDELL TUCKER to the party song "MEIS You," so I went home because I DON KERR for that.

Pepperettes

Mrs. Carey I dreamed last night that you were the most generous man in the world, and you gave me a hundred dollar bill to buy me some new dresses today. Surely you wouldn't do anything to spoil such a beautiful dream, would you?

Mr. Carey Certainly not just to show you I am as generous as you dreamed, you may keep that hundred-dollar bill I gave you.

Earl Wiebke: How about a little ride?

Darlene Klemme: Are you going north?

Earl: Yes, I am.

Darlene: Give my regards to the Eskimos.

Mr. Hammond Do you suppose our sons get their intelligence from me?

Mrs. Hammond: I suppose so, dear. I still have mine.

Dearest Marian:

I love you devotedly, passionately, madly and would sacrifice everything I have for you. I would swim the deepest waters; I would climb the highest mountains, I would go through fire to be at your side.

Lovingly,

Tom.

P.S. I will be around Saturday night if it doesn't rain.
